NOTICE.—Obituaries, memorials, etc., not to exceed 80 words, inserted free; $1 charged for each additional thirty words.

Correspondents will please remember to always mail their items so that they will reach us on Monday. This matter is seriously important to us.

THE pampered Senate conceives in its heart that it is the people's master. For the future welfare of the nation it behooves the people to undeceive it.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM is of itself a sound policy if properly conducted. When extended so as to strip the arrogant, spiteful Senators of all patronage it will be better still.

THE pie-men are making a mighty kick about the abolishment of the nine pension agencies. If they are not needed by the Government it is a crime against a righteous economy to retain them.

EXPENSIVE reform should be extended until the free seed, free-Appollinaris water, free pocket-knife, free quinine capsule and every sort of free-luxury privilege of Congress and especially of the Senate is prohibited. Five thousand dollars per year and mileage is much more than Senators and Congressmen are worth to the nation on an average.

HINTS of Inspector Lester's report on the Eddyville penitentiary are leaking out, indicating an extremely bad case of mismanagement. In such cases one principal rule should obtain: that is, to dismiss all derelict officials without regard to personal standing or political affiliation. The people's rights and interests are paramount and it is a crime against them to cover up gross abuses of public trust because of either personal or political considerations.

TAKE a lot of sugar, a lot of water and a lot of sap wood and inner bark of the maple tree; boil well together; strain, concentrate to a syrupy consistency, and you have the best harmless imitation of genuine maple syrup in which to throw a better catch-as-catch-can and wallow it, preparatory to that gustatory slight-of-mouth work so much the fashion at this season of the year. The real old-fashioned articles of maple syrup love for each other so it seems. These sophisticated days as a politician with a proper sense of gratitude.

The champagne served at the Bradley-Martin ball cost $8 per three-quarter quart bottle and was specially imported from France for the occasion. A dollar per swallow! A giraffe's neck would be too short for that sort of liquid refreshment.

The Steel-Rail Trust was discontinued last week and in a short time rails had declined from $25 to $15.25 per ton in Pittsburgh and from $26 to $18 in Chicago. Recently the price was $28 at Pittsburgh and $29 at Chicago. A profit of over 100 per cent. more than the rails could be profitably sold at is an immense trust tariff for the people to pay on that important commodity.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The writing school conducted by Professor McNeal closed at this place Friday.

W. C. Jackson's sale of the 13th inst. was largely attended and everything sold well.

Miss Daisy Snedegar, who has been sick for some time, is with an acute attack of the grippe, is slowly recovering.

Miss Sadie Stout, of near Mt. Sterling, has been visiting Misses May and Eva Estill during the past week.

Brother Anderson, of the Lexington Bible College, preached to a large and appreciative audience here Sunday. Mr. Anderson is an orator, a classical scholar of the first water, and gives entire satisfaction to all.

Mr. Abe Jones, of near this place, died Wednesday morning, Feb. 10. He was a man of sterling worth and will be missed by all who knew him. He was a soldier in the Union Army and was buried with the honors of war by the Thomas Clark Post at the Atchison graveyard. He leaves a wife and several children, to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

In the month of August, 1896, Miss Fannie Snedegar, now Mrs. A. C. Manley, and Miss Mary Royle, both of this place, wrote their names and address, placed them in a bottle and threw it in the river. It was found by two young men floating in the Ohio at Bethlehem, near Jeffersonville, Ind., on the 10th of Feb., 1897. Mrs. Manley received a letter from one of the young men, a Mr. W. L. Moss, giving a description of himself and his occupation, and desiring a correspondence, saying his friend would write to Miss Royle soon. This bottle has floated a distance of 270 miles. Its voyage could it be known would likely be interesting reading.

Sherburne.

Brush Swartz purchased of Wm. Dodson a sow and 6 pigs for $11.

Mrs. U. P. Faris and daughter Mary, of Poplar Plains, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Overby last Sunday.

J. E. Carmichael and wife gave a very enjoyable party to the young people last Tuesday night, in which dancing was the most prominent feature. Owing to the rain there was a small crowd in attendance, but all had a good time.

G. L. Kirkpatrick, of Mt. Sterling, was here last week looking at the tobacco in the vicinity and made several purchases at from one to five cents per lb.

One of the most delightful events of the season was a party given by the Misses Quisenberry at the home of their father, J. M. Quisenberry, last Saturday night. There were dancing and other amusements to suit all guests, who numbered about a half hundred young ladies and gentlemen of this and adjoining neighborhoods.

THE GOLDEN STAIR. (Song written by Lucy Williams for Mrs. Asa Church.) Lay away the little dresses That our darling used to wear; How we shall miss the little things He has chosen the golden state. He is with the happy angels— And I long for his sweet kiss— Where his little feet are waiting, In the realms of perfect bliss.

Angels whisper that our darling Is in lands of love so fair, Where his little feet are waiting, Close beside the golden stair.

Lay aside the little playthings, Wet with mother's pearly tears; How we shall miss the little things He has chosen the golden state.

All these weary coming years, Fold the dainty little dresses That he never more will wear, For his little feet are waiting, Up above the golden stair.

Kiss the little curly tresses, Cut from his bright golden hair; Do the angels kiss our little darling On the radiant so bright and fair? Oh, we pray to meet our darling For a long, long sweet embrace, Where his little feet are waiting, And will meet him face to face.

Work on the M. E. Church, South, will be resumed this week, and with such a leader as Rev. C. E. Boswell, it is needless to say it will be pushed to completion, as he does nothing by halves.

Why is it you can get no limit at Charlie Crain's drugstore? Because he and Will Park would go over in Bath Sunday evening regardless of darkness and the plover on John Warren's store porch.

Allie W. Young, of Mt. Sterling, was a business visitor here Saturday last. As he was suffering with rheumatism in his right hand he had to "shake" with the left, but as "practice makes perfect" he did very well.

William Durham, who has been quite sick for several weeks, has gone to Morehead to be treated by Dr. L. P. Williams. We hope he may speedily recover his health and return to his school work. He is a good teacher and a Christian gentleman.

Rev. H. F. Martin was in town last week distributing cards announcing himself a candidate for County Judge. If the ladies did the voting Brother Martin could make sure of his election, for with him on the bench Rowan would speedily become a "dry" county.

Hillsboro.

Grant Saunders is still quite poorly.

Thos. Crawford was in Maysville last week.

C. W. Garnett was in Cincinnati last week.

John W. Gilmore was in Maysville Monday.

Misses Elcie Faris and Jennie Kincaid, of Tilton, were the pleasant guests of friends here last week.

Mrs. Glasecock and two daughters, of Mt. Carmel, were the guests of Rev. P. J. Ross and wife last week.

Mr. Green returned to his home at Farmers last week, after a protracted visit to his daughter, Mrs. C. W. Garnett.

The revival at the M. E. Church, South, which has been in progress for three weeks, will likely close this week, much good having been done, there already having been about 50 conversions and about 25 additions to the Church. Bro. A. P. Jones, of Mt. Carmel, is a man of God and God works with him. The meeting has done much good, it being the first revival of importance here for quite awhile. Bro. Ed. Allen, who had charge of the singing, left Saturday for his work in Lewis Co. The attendance at the meeting was immense, greater than could be seated comfortably.

Sharpshurg.

Will Wren, of Peyton's Lick, was here Saturday on business.

Our country friends are complaining again of the petty thievery that is going on.

W. H. Cannan sold last week to A. W. English three broke work mules, price private.
